

Satisfied Customers

U.S. General Services Administration, District of Columbia
Government (Prime Contractor)

Department of Health

- Contracted to replace a major IBM mainframe based nutrition benefits system (WIC System) with Client Server Technology.

Mainframe to Client Server Re-development

- Replacing the existing Mainframe application with a Client Server system developed in Visual Basic and utilizing an Oracle database
- Integrating the Nu-Pulse Inventory module in our accounting application to track all commodities provided to service recipients
- Designing and installing a Wide Area Network connecting 14 Sites
- Built the LAN infrastructure for each site, and supplied T1 and DS-3 circuits
- Supplying and installing over 98 desktop computers, 14 servers, and all network components
- Installing and configuring a Citrix server farm to enable interface to the applications through a browser from all locations